

Cobweb Committee Member Nomination Form

Expectations of a Cobweb Communications Committee Member:

The Cobweb Communications Committee is the communications outreach group of the Moravian Church in the Western District of the Northern Province.

Our purpose: Young adults strive to further unify the Western District Moravian Church in its walk with and witness of Christ to enhance the communication of the ministries provided by the Western District congregations.

The Cobweb Communications Ministry Committee consists of 14 young adults between the ages of 18-28 all who are volunteering their time to this ministry. The Committee consists of:

- 1 Committee Director
- 13 Committee Members

Those serving as committee members on the Cobweb Communications Ministry Committee are expected to have deep commitment to the communication network of the Western District Moravian Church. All committee members should demonstrate (but not limited to) the following characteristics:

- Between the ages of 18-28 years old
- Love to serve God and the Moravian Church
- Comfortable to speak when asked to give updates about this ministry as well as the information they post and deliver from the Western District Website.
- Easily to be contacted by:
  - Face to face communication
  - Phone
  - Email
  - Facebook
  - Skype
- Can fully commit themselves to this project and their assigned church(es).
- Likes to have FUN!!!!

The Cobweb Communications Ministry Committee has 2 committee meetings each year. Both the spring and fall meetings are held at a location within the Western District. The MWCEC will cover food, lodging and travel expenses. Committee members are expected to attend both annual meetings as well as remain in regular contact through email or telephone between gatherings.
