presentation by Christian recording artist Mela Kamin!
$40 is required at the time of registration to secure your reservation and the remaining $50 will be collected when you arrive.

Our program leader will be Fran Lankford.

Fran Lankford has been a conference presenter and consultant for thirty-plus years. Through hospice work, she developed the skills to help hurting people and has established grief support groups, educated families, and ministered to patients. She loves working with women to empower them to realize their God-given potential. She is an inspirational speaker and teacher with a humorous approach. As co-producer and host of her own television show "All About Kids!" Fran educated viewers in a wide range of subjects involving the needs of children and families. She has been a literacy volunteer, teacher's aide and women's advocate. Fran has co-authored the book "Thresholds and Passages... portals to the life you were meant to live."

Her goal is to help women step out of the ordinary.

Fran lives in Port Edwards, WI with her husband and best friend, Bill. They will be married 50 yrs in June.

Hosted by the women of Freedom Moravian Church
